

Go to www.inspector911.com

Go the links for the message board. You can get there under the code weenie section or the quick links on the left

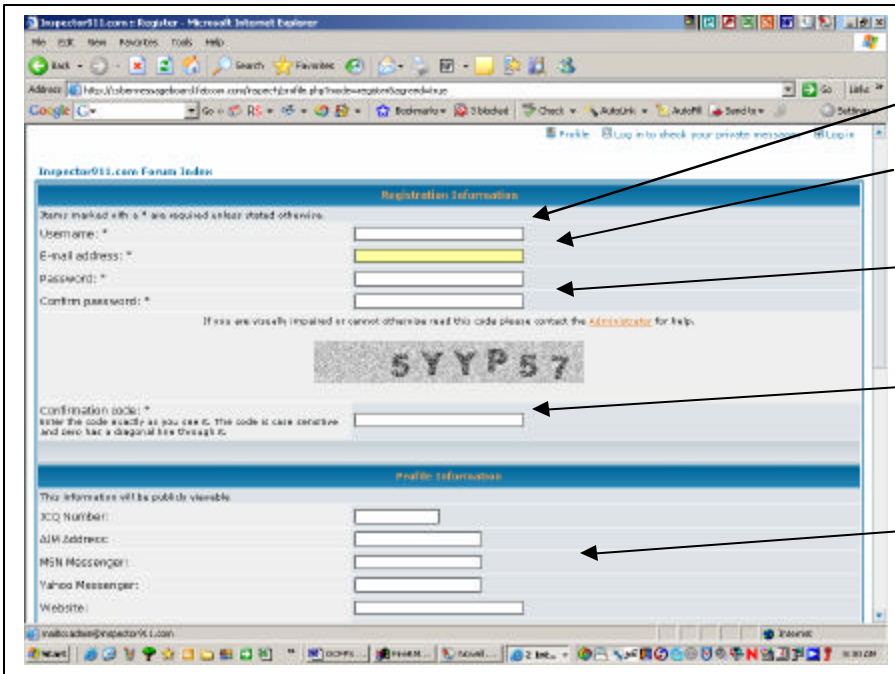

A new window should open up:

This is a message board where you can post questions under a given topic.

The first step is to register:

The registration will walk you through many spaces, complete it and then the system will send you an email to the address you provide. Reply to the email and then you are ready to go.

REGISTRATION

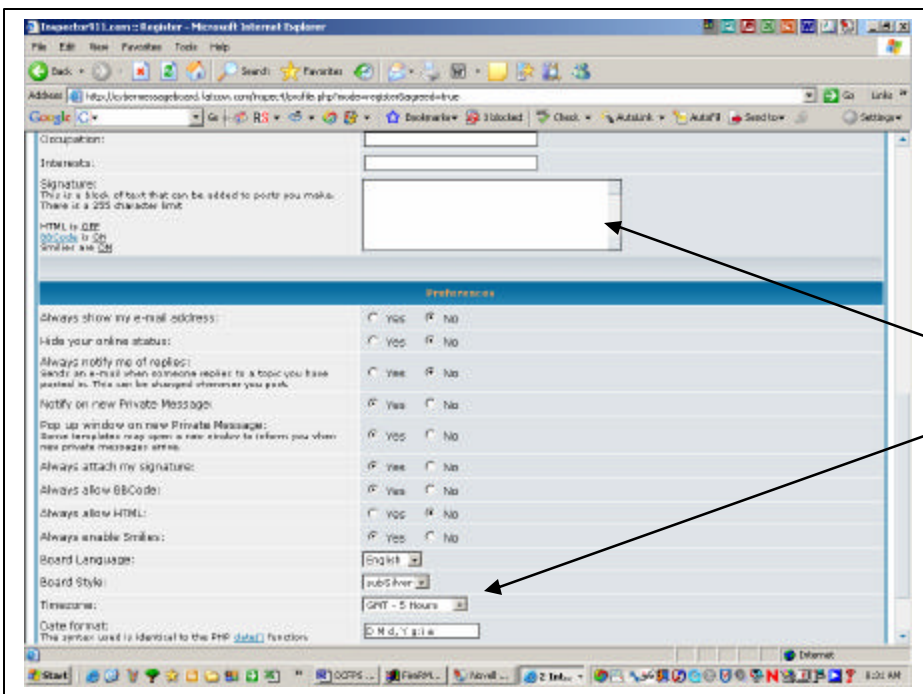

User Name

Email Address

Password (you pick)

Confirmation Code

This is optional stuff under your name on the site.

This part is your preference based on you as a user

The signature appears under your name each time we post

Time zone is GMT -5 Hours

You can leave the other sections in the default answers.

Now you can post and respond to other posts and share our collective knowledge. The board is as interactive as the users.

Note Once you are registered, send a regular email to admin@inspector911.com and ask to be added to the OCFPS private section. Please include your login name in the email.

OCFPS membership has its own section that can be used to ask questions specific to OCFPS. Once added to the private list you are ready to post in this section.
